E.2 Board Structure

Code of Ethics or Conduct

E.2.1	Are the details of the code of ethics or conduct disclosed?	OECD PRINCIPLE VI  (C) The board should apply high ethical standards. It should take into account the interests of stakeholders.                  The board has a key role in setting the ethical tone of a company, not only by its own actions, but also in appointing and overseeing key executives and consequently the management in general. High ethical standards are in the long term interests of the company as a means to make it credible and trustworthy, not only in day-to-day operations but also with respect to longer term commitments. To make the objectives of the board clear and operational, many companies have found it useful to develop company codes of conduct based on, inter alia, professional standards and sometimes broader codes of behaviour. The latter might include a voluntary commitment by the company (including its subsidiaries) to comply with the OECD Guidelines for Multinational Enterprises which reflect all four principles contained in the ILO Declaration on Fundamental Labour Rights.                  Company-wide codes serve as a standard for conduct by both the board and key executives, setting the framework for the exercise of judgement in dealing with varying and often conflicting constituencies. At a minimum, the ethical code should set clear limits on the pursuit of private interests, including dealings in the shares of the company. An overall framework for ethical conduct goes beyond compliance with the law, which should always be a fundamental requirement.	Y	Please see CARD MBA, Inc. Governance Manual page 25 Chapter 4 which shows the details of the implemented Code of Discipline /Ethics of the Association. CARD MBA, Inc. Corporate Governance Manual.
E.2.2	Does the company disclose that all directors/commissioners, senior management and employees are required to comply with the code?	Company-wide codes serve as a standard for conduct by both the board and key executives, setting the framework for the exercise of judgement in dealing with varying and often conflicting constituencies. At a minimum, the ethical code should set clear limits on the pursuit of private interests, including dealings in the shares of the company. An overall framework for ethical conduct goes beyond compliance with the law, which should always be a fundamental requirement.	Y	Please see CARD MBA, Inc. Governance Manual page 25 Chapter 4, 1st paragraph which states that the implemented Code of Discipline of the Association should be observed by directors, managers, officers and staff in all their dealings and relationship. CARD MBA, Inc. Corporate Governance Manual.
E.2.3	Does the company disclose how it implements and monitors compliance with the code of ethics or conduct?	Company-wide codes serve as a standard for conduct by both the board and key executives, setting the framework for the exercise of judgement in dealing with varying and often conflicting constituencies. At a minimum, the ethical code should set clear limits on the pursuit of private interests, including dealings in the shares of the company. An overall framework for ethical conduct goes beyond compliance with the law, which should always be a fundamental requirement.	Y	Please see the 2019 Annual Report page 22 under Anti Corruption program disclosed the activities conducted in 2019 of how it implements and monitors the code of conduct. 2019 Annual Report

Board Structure & Composition

E.2.4	Do independent directors/commissioners make up at least 50% of the board of directors/commissioners?	OECD PRINCIPLE VI (E)                  In order to exercise its duties of monitoring managerial performance, preventing conflicts of interest and balancing competing demands on the corporation, it is essential that the board is able to exercise objective judgement. In the first instance this will mean independence and objectivity with respect to management with important implications for the composition and structure of the board. Board independence in these circumstances usually requires that a sufficient number of board members will need to be independent of management. The ASX Code recommends at least a majority of independent directors, while the UK Code recommends at least half of the board, excluding the Chairman, be independent directors. The minimum of three independent directors is to ensure that companies with small boards have enough independent directors (note that stock exchange rules often require at least two independent directors).	Y	The Revised Corporation Code under Section 22 and Insurance Circular No. 2019- 36 Item A and Circular No. 2018-36 which states that: The Board of insurance companies, insurance and reinsurance brokers, mutual benefit associations, pre-need companies and health maintenance organizations shall have independent directors constituting at least twenty percent (20%) of such board. In compliance with the existing policy, please see CARD MBA, Inc. Amended By-Laws under Article 2, Section 2 which states that the Board of Trustees shall be composed of 15 members, three (3) of which shall be Independent Trustees. In addition, all our board have no executive functions and they are considered independent of management. CARD MBA By Laws
-------	--	---	---	--

E.2.5	Are the independent directors/commissioners independent of management and major/ substantial shareholders?	OECD PRINCIPLE VI (E) In order to exercise its duties of monitoring managerial performance, preventing conflicts of interest and balancing competing demands on the corporation, it is essential that the board is able to exercise objective judgement. In the first instance this will mean independence and objectivity with respect to management with important implications for the composition and structure of the board. Board independence in these circumstances usually requires that a sufficient number of board members will need to be independent of management. The variety of board structures, ownership patterns and practices in different countries will thus require different approaches to the issue of board objectivity. In many instances objectivity requires that a sufficient number of board members not be employed by the company or its affiliates and not be closely related to the company or its management through significant economic, family or other ties. This does not prevent shareholders from being board members. In others, independence from controlling shareholders or another controlling body will need to be emphasised, in particular if the ex ante rights of minority shareholders are weak and opportunities to obtain redress are limited. This has led to both codes, and the law in some jurisdictions, to call for some board members to be independent of dominant shareholders, independence extending to not being their representative or having close business ties with them.	Y	Please see CARD MBA, Inc. Governance Manual page 9 Chapter 2, Section 2 under Independent Trustee which states that Independent Trustees shall be a person who, apart from his fees is independent of Management. He/she is likewise, not acting as nominee or representative of any director of the related institutions or any of its substantial stockholders. CARD MBA, Inc. Corporate Governance Manual.
E.2.6	Does the company have a term limit of nine years or less for its independent directors/commissioners?	UK CODE (JUNE 2010): Non-executive directors should be appointed for specified terms subject to re-election and to statutory provisions relating to the removal of a director. Any term beyond six years for a non-executive director should be subject to particularly rigorous review, and should take into account the need for progressive refreshing of the board and to succession for appointments to the board and to senior management, so as to maintain an appropriate balance of skills and experience within the company and on the board.	Y	Please see CARD MBA, Inc. Governance Manual page 9 Chapter 2, Section 2 under Independent Trustee which states that Independent Trustee shall serve as such for a maximum cumulative term of nine (9) years. After which, the independent director shall be perpetually barred from serving as independent director. CARD MBA, Inc. Corporate Governance Manual.
E.2.7	Has the company set a limit of five board seats that an individual independent/non-executive director/commissioner may hold simultaneously?	UK CODE (JUNE 2010): Non-executive directors should be appointed for specified terms subject to re-election and to statutory provisions relating to the removal of a director. Any term beyond six years for a non-executive director should be subject to particularly rigorous review, and should take into account the need for progressive refreshing of the board and to succession for appointments to the board and to senior management, so as to maintain an appropriate balance of skills and experience within the company and on the board.	Y	Please see CARD MBA, Inc. Governance Manual page 9 Chapter 2, Section 2 which states that an independent board shall hold up to five (5) Board seats only, simultaneously. CARD MBA, Inc. Corporate Governance Manual.
E.2.8	Does the company have any independent directors/commissioners who serve on a total of more than five boards of publicly-listed companies?	OECD PRINCIPLE VI (E) (3) Board members should be able to commit themselves effectively to their responsibilities. Service on too many boards can interfere with the performance of board members. Companies may wish to consider whether multiple board memberships by the same person are compatible with effective board performance and disclose the information to shareholders.	N	Please see the 2019 Annual Report page 25 under the Profile of the Independent Trustees which states that they do not serve any listed company. 2019 Annual Report
E.2.9	Does the company have any executive directors who serve on more than two boards of listed companies outside of the group?		N	Please see the 2019 Annual Report pages 26-27 which shows the Management team of CARD MBA and all holds no board position in any listed companies. 2019 Annual Report
Nominating Committee

E.2.10	Does the company have a Nominating Committee (NC)?	OECD PRINCIPLE II (C)  (3) Effective shareholder participation in key corporate governance decisions, such as the nomination and election of board members, should be facilitated. Shareholders should be able to make their views known on the remuneration policy for board members and key executives. The equity component of compensation schemes for board members and employees should be subject to shareholder approval. With respect to nomination of candidates, boards in many companies have established Nominating Committees to ensure proper compliance with established nomination procedures and to facilitate and coordinate the search for a balanced and qualified board. It is increasingly regarded as good practice in many countries for independent board members to have a key role on this committee. To further improve the selection process, the Principles also call for full disclosure of the experience and background of candidates for the board and the nomination process, which will allow an informed assessment of the abilities and suitability of each candidate.	Y	Please see the 2019 Annual Report page 18 which shows that one of the Board Committees is the Nomination Committee. 2019 Annual Report
E.2.11	Does the Nominating Committee comprise of a majority of independent directors/commissioners?	OECD PRINCIPLE VI (E)  (1) Boards should consider assigning a sufficient number of non-executive board members capable of exercising independent judgement to tasks where there is a potential for conflict of interest. Examples of such key responsibilities are ensuring the integrity of financial and non-financial reporting, the review of related party transactions, nomination of board members and key executives, and board remuneration.	Y	Please see the 2019 Annual Report page 18 which shows the members of the Nomination Committee and states that all its members are independent and hold no executive position. 2019 Annual Report
E.2.12	Is the chairman of the Nominating Committee an independent director/commissioner?	This item is in most codes of corporate governance.	Y	Please see the 2019 Annual Report page 18 which shows that the Nomination Committee is headed by an Independent Trustee Ms. Umali. 2019 Annual Report
E.2.13	Does the company disclose the terms of reference/governance structure/charter of the Nominating Committee?	OECD PRINCIPLE VI (E)  (2) When committees of the board are established, their mandate, composition and working procedures should be well defined and disclosed by the board. While the use of committees may improve the work of the board they may also raise questions about the collective responsibility of the board and of individual board members. In order to evaluate the merits of board committees it is therefore important that the market receives a full and clear picture of their purpose, duties and composition. Such information is particularly important in an increasing number of jurisdictions where boards are establishing independent Audit Committees with powers to oversee the relationship with the external auditor and to act in many cases independently. Other such committees include those dealing with nomination and compensation. The accountability of the rest of the board and the board as a whole should be clear. Disclosure should not extend to committees set up to deal with, for example, confidential commercial transactions	Y	Please see CARD MBA, Inc. Remuneration Committee/ Compensation Committee
E.2.16	Does the company have a Remuneration Committee?	OECD PRINCIPLE VI (D) (4) Aligning key executive and board remuneration with the longer term interests of the company and its shareholders.  It is considered good practice in an increasing number of countries that remuneration policy and employment contracts for board members and key executives be handled by a special committee of the board comprising either wholly or a majority of independent directors. There are also calls for a Remuneration Committee that excludes executives that serve on each others' Remuneration Committees, which could lead to conflicts of interest.	Y	Please see the 2019 Annual Report page 19 which shows that one of the Board Committees is Remuneration Committee.  2019 Annual Report
E.2.17	Does the Remuneration Committee comprise of a majority of independent directors/commissioners?		Y	Please see the 2019 Annual Report page 19 disclosed the names of Remuneration Committee all are members of the board who holds no executive position  2019 Annual Report

E.2.20	Did the Remuneration Committee meet at least twice during the year?	Given the responsibilities of the Remuneration Committee (RC) which are spelt out in codes of corporate governance, the RC is unlikely to be fulfilling these responsibilities effectively if it only meets once a year. Globally, the RC of large companies would meet several times a year.	Y	Please see the 2019 Annual Report page 19 which shows that the Remuneration Committee meet twice in a year. 2019 Annual Report

Audit Committee
E.2.22	Does the company have an Audit Committee?	OECD PRINCIPLE VI (E) (1) Boards should consider assigning a sufficient number of non-executive board members capable of exercising independent judgement to tasks where there is a potential for conflict of interest. Examples of such key responsibilities are ensuring the integrity of financial and non-financial reporting, the review of related party transactions, nomination of board members and key executives, and board remuneration.	Y	Under the list of Default Items under Insurance Circular Letter (CL) No. 2015-23 dated 8 May 2015. Please see the 2019 Annual Report page 17 which shows that one of the Board Committee is Audit Committee. 2019 Annual Report
E.2.23	Does the Audit Committee comprise entirely of non-executive directors/commissioners with a majority of independent directors/commissioners?	OECD PRINCIPLE VI (E) (2) When committees of the board are established, their mandate, composition and working procedures should be well defined and disclosed by the board. While the use of committees may improve the work of the board they may also raise questions about the collective responsibility of the board and of individual board members. The board should satisfy itself that at least one member of the Audit Committee has recent and relevant financial experience.  As many of the key responsibilities of the Audit Committee are accounting-related, such as oversight of financial reporting and audits, it is important to have someone specifically with accounting expertise, not just general financial expertise. ### E.3 Board Processes

Board meetings and attendance

E.3.1	Are the board of directors meeting scheduled before the start of financial year?	Scheduling board meetings before or at the beginning of the year would allow directors to plan ahead to attend such meetings, thereby helping to maximise participation, especially as non-executive directors often have other commitments. Additional ad hoc meetings can always be scheduled if and when necessary. It is common practice for boards in developed markets to schedule meetings in this way.	Y	Please see CARD MBA, Inc. Governance Manual page 17 Chapter 2, Section 7 which states that the Board of Trustees' meeting is scheduled every 1st Friday of every two months.  Calendar of Meetings

Achieving legitimacy would also be facilitated by the publication of attendance records for individual board members (e.g. whether they have missed a significant number of meetings) and any other work undertaken on behalf of the board and the associated remuneration.	Y	Please see the 2019 Annual Report page 17 which shows the attendance of members of the Board of Trustee during the year.

E.3.6	Are board papers for board of directors/commissioners meetings provided to the board at least five business days in advance of the board meeting?	OECD PRINCIPLE VI (F) In order to fulfil their responsibilities, board members should have access to accurate, relevant and timely information. Board members require relevant information on a timely basis in order to support their decision-making. Non-executive board members do not typically have the same access to information as key managers within the company. The contributions of non-executive board members to the company can be enhanced by providing access to certain key managers within the company such as, for example, the company secretary and the internal auditor, and recourse to independent external advice at the expense of the company. In order to fulfil their responsibilities, board members should ensure that they obtain accurate, relevant and timely information. WORLD BANK PRINCIPLE 6 (VI.F.2) Does such information need to be provided to the board at least five business days in advance of the board meeting?	Y	Please see CARD MBA, Inc. Board Appointments and Re-Election

E.3.9	Does the company disclose the criteria used in selecting new directors/commissioners?	OECD PRINCIPLE II (C) (3) To further improve the selection process, the Principles also call for full disclosure of the experience and background of candidates for the board and the nomination process, which will allow an informed assessment of the abilities and suitability of each candidate. OECD Principle VI (D) (5) Ensuring a formal and transparent board nomination and election process. These Principles promote an active role for shareholders in the nomination and election of board members. The board has an essential role to play in ensuring that this and other aspects of the nominations and election process are respected. First, while actual procedures for nomination may differ among countries, the board or a nomination committee has a special responsibility to make sure that established procedures are transparent and respected. Second, the board has a key role in identifying potential members for the board with the appropriate knowledge, competencies and expertise to complement the existing skills of the board and thereby improve its value-adding potential for the company. In several countries there are calls for an open search process extending to a broad range of people.	Y	Please see CARD MBA, Inc. E.3.11	Are all the directors/commissioners subject to re-election at least once every three years?	ICGN: 2.9.1 Election of directors: Directors should be conscious of their accountability to shareholders, and many jurisdictions have mechanisms to ensure that this is in place on an ongoing basis. There are some markets however where such accountability is less apparent and in these each director should stand for election on an annual basis. Elsewhere directors should stand for election at least once every three years, though they should face evaluation more frequently. WORLD BANK PRINCIPLE 6 (VI.I.18) Can the re-election of board members be staggered over time? (Staggered boards are those where only a part of the board is re-elected at each election, e.g. only 1/3 of directors are re-elected every year.)	Y	Under the list of Default Items under Insurance Circular Letter (CL) No. 2015-23 dated 8 May 2015. Please see CARD MBA, Inc. Remuneration Matters

E.3.12	Does the company disclose its remuneration (fees, allowances, benefit-in-kind and other emoluments) policy/practices (i.e. the use of short term and long term incentives and performance measures) for its executive directors and CEO?	OECD PRINCIPLE VI (D)  (4) Aligning key executive and board remuneration with the longer term interests of the company and its shareholders. In an increasing number of countries it is regarded as good practice for boards to develop and disclose a remuneration policy statement covering board members and key executives. Such policy statements specify the relationship between remuneration and performance, and include measurable standards that emphasise the longer run interests of the company over short term considerations. Policy statements generally tend to set conditions for payments to board members for extra-board activities, such as consulting. They also often specify terms to be observed by board members and key executives about holding and trading the stock of the company, and the procedures to be followed in granting and repricing of options. In some countries, policy also covers the payments to be made when terminating the contract of an executive.	N
E.3.13	Is there disclosure of the fee structure for non-executive directors/commissioners?	UK CODE (JUNE 2010)  D.1.3 Levels of remuneration for non-executive directors should reflect the time commitment and responsibilities of the role. Disclosure of fee structure for non-executive directors allows shareholders to assess if these directors are remunerated in an appropriate manner, for example, whether they are paid for taking on additional responsibilities and contributions, such as chairing committees.	N/A	Board of Trustees has no remuneration but shall be entitled for reimbursement of expenses during the attendance of meetings.
E.3.14	Do the shareholders or the Board of Directors approve the remuneration of the executive directors and/or the senior executives?	OECD PRINCIPLE VI. (D.4)  The Board should fulfil certain key functions including aligning key executive and board remuneration with the longer term interests of the company and its shareholders. ICGN 2.3 (D) and (E)  D. E.3.15	Do independent non-executive directors/commissioners receive options, performance shares or bonuses?	UK CODE (JUNE 2010) (D.1.3) Levels of remuneration for non-executive directors should reflect the time commitment and responsibilities of the role. Remuneration for non-executive directors should not include share options or other performance-related elements. If, by exception, options are granted, shareholder approval should be sought in advance and any shares acquired by exercise of the options should be held until at least one year after the non-executive director leaves the board. Holding of share options could be relevant to the determination of a non-executive director's independence (as set out in provision B.1.1). ASX CODE Box 8.2: Guidelines for non-executive director remuneration Companies may find it useful to consider the following when considering non-executive director remuneration: 1. Non-executive directors should normally be remunerated by way of fees, in the form of cash, noncash benefits, superannuation contributions or salary sacrifice into equity; they should not normally participate in schemes designed for the remuneration of executives. 2. Internal Audit
E.3.16	Does the company have a separate internal audit function?	OECD PRINCIPLE VI (D) (7) Ensuring the integrity of the corporation's accounting and financial reporting systems, including the independent audit, and that appropriate systems of control are in place, in particular, systems for risk management, financial and operational control, and compliance with the law and relevant standards. Ensuring the integrity of the essential reporting and monitoring systems will require the board to set and enforce clear lines of responsibility and accountability throughout the organisation. The board will also need to ensure that there is appropriate oversight by senior management. One way of doing this is through an internal audit system directly reporting to the board.	Y	Under the list of Default Items under Insurance Circular Letter (CL) No. 2015-23 dated 8 May 2015. Please see the 2019 Annual Report page 20 disclose that CARD MBA have a separate internal audit function as part of the independent checks and balances. 2019 Annual Report
E.3.17	Is the head of internal audit identified or, if outsourced, is the name of the external firm disclosed?	Companies often disclose that they have an internal audit but, in practice, it is not uncommon for it to exist more in form than in substance. For example, the in-house internal audit may be assigned to someone with other operational responsibilities. As internal audit is unregulated, unlike external audit, there are firms providing outsourced internal audit services which are not properly qualified to do so. Making the identity of the head of internal audit or the external service provider public would provide some level of safeguard that the internal audit is substantive.	Y	Please see the 2019 Annual Report page 20 named the head of internal and external auditors. 2019 Annual Report

E.3.18	Does the appointment and removal of the internal auditor require the approval of the Audit Committee?	OECD PRINCIPLE VI (D) (7) In some jurisdictions it is considered good practice for the internal auditors to report to an independent Audit Committee of the board or an equivalent body which is also responsible for managing the relationship with the external auditor, thereby allowing a coordinated response by the board. WORLDBANK PRINCIPLE 6 (VI.D.7.9) Does the internal auditors have direct and unfettered access to the board of directors and its independent Audit Committee? ASX Principles on CG "...companies should consider a second reporting line from the internal audit function to the board or relevant committee." Under the ASX Principles it is also recommended that the Audit Committee have access to internal audit without the presence of management, and that "the audit committee should recommend to the board the appointment and dismissal of a chief internal audit executive."	Y	Under the list of Default Items under Insurance Circular Letter (CL) No. 2015-23 dated 8 May 2015. Please see CARD MBA, Inc. Further, page 22 of the 2019 Annual Report states that one of the procedure in place is the Cluster Manager Audit Monitoring System (CMAMS). CARD MBA, Inc. Corporate Governance Manual.
E.3.20	Does the Annual Report disclose that the board of directors/commissioners has conducted a review of the company's material controls (including operational, financial and compliance controls) and risk management systems?	UK CODE (JUNE 2010) C.2.1 The board should, at least annually, conduct a review of the effectiveness of the company's risk management and internal control systems and should report to shareholders that they have done so. The review should cover all material controls, including financial, operational and compliance controls.	Y	Please see the 2019 Annual Report page 18 under Risk Oversight Committee which states that The Risk Committee evaluate the Association's risk exposure and ensures that the management implements effectively the mitigating factors recommended by the committee. 2019 Annual Report
E.3.21	Does the company disclose how key risks are managed?	OECD PRINCIPLE V (A) (6) Foreseeable risk factors. Disclosure of risk is most effective when it is tailored to the particular industry in question. Disclosure about the system for monitoring and managing risk is increasingly regarded as good practice.	Y	2019 Annual Report page 87-98 shows how the Association manage its key risks. 2019 Annual Report

E.3.22	Does the Annual Report contain a statement from the board of directors/commissioners or Audit Committee commenting on the adequacy of the company's internal controls/risk management systems?	OECD PRINCIPLE 6 (VI) (D) (7) Ensuring the integrity of the corporation's accounting and financial reporting systems, including the independent audit, and that appropriate systems of control are in place, in particular, systems for risk management, financial and operational control, and compliance with the law and relevant standards. In some jurisdictions it is considered good practice for the internal auditors to report to an independent audit committee of the board or an equivalent body which is also responsible for managing the relationship with the external auditor, thereby allowing a coordinated response by the board. It should also be regarded as good practice for this committee, or equivalent body, to review and report to the board the most critical accounting policies which are the basis for financial reports. However, the board should retain final responsibility for ensuring the integrity of the reporting systems. Some countries have provided for the chair of the board to report on the internal control process.	Y	Please see the 2019 Annual Report page 17 under audit committee which states that The Audit Committee certifies that CARD MBA, Inc. has sufficient internal control systems implemented in 2019. 2019 Annual Report

E.4.1	Do different persons assume the roles of chairman and CEO?	OECD PRINCIPLE VI (E) The board should be able to exercise objective independent judgement on corporate affairs. In a number of countries with single tier board systems, the objectivity of the board and its independence from management may be strengthened by the separation of the role of chief executive and chairman, or, if these roles are combined, by designating a lead non-executive director to convene or chair sessions of the outside directors. Separation of the two posts may be regarded as good practice, as it can help to achieve an appropriate balance of power, increase accountability and improve the board's capacity for decision making independent of management.	Y	The 2019 Annual Report shows that the President and Chairman of CARD MBA is Ms. Flodeliza C. In order to provide this independent judgement, and to generate confidence that independent judgement is being applied, a board should include a strong presence of independent non-executive directors with appropriate competencies including key industry sector knowledge and experience. There should be at least a majority of independent directors on each board.	Y	Please see the 2019 Annual Report page 18 which states that the Chairperson of the PDIC is an independent consultant who has deep knowledge and expertise in the field of microinsurance and product development.
